

{mosimage}On October 25th, Linha Alerta became member of the international association INHOPE, comprised of hotlines from all over the World, dedicated to fight illegal content on the Internet.

After a meeting of the assembly of INHOPE in Berlin, the application of Linha Alerta was accepted by all members. As usual, this membership is provisional for one year, after which, unless there are serious problems in the service, its status will be Full member.

This represents another step for Linha Alerta towards becoming a service of reference in the national scene, concerning the fight of illegal content on the Internet, making its action more effective through cooperation with a vast international network.
